Jeremy Moff is the President of Moff Interactive. After seeing so many people building websites that do not work, he decided to do something about it. Jeremy became Certified in the StoryBrand 7-Part Framework which helps companies eliminate confusion and communicate clearly with their customers so they can grow their businesses.

As a StoryBrand Certified Guide, he is trained and licensed by StoryBrand to create marketing collateral for customers using the StoryBrand 7-Part Framework. By using the power of story you will engage your customers like never before and drive more revenue for your company
